Hi! You say you're too old for coloring books? Not this one! Our book doesn't tell the story of Dennis the Menace or the Jetsons. We are here to color the story of Carnegie High School and the students who study there. We're coloring the picture of US!

You can put away your pencils, paint, brushes, chalk, and crayons—you won't be using them. We want you to color your book with memories of your years at CHS. Color the smiles bright on the faces of your friends and teachers; color the gab sessions at lunch hour a mixture of laughs and excitement; color the canteens with blends of fun and music; color the sports events with hues of spirited frolic and determination bordered with victory. Get ready now to review your years at CHS and to color your book with the achievement, spirit, excitement, fun, honor, imagination, and, especially, memories, that to you is . . . Carnegie High School.

WITH

Dear 1964 Graduates:

With each additional orbit our astronauts have circled a shrinking earth. So small has our known world become that man now turns his attention to unknown worlds beyond. So must you now explore those limitless areas of knowledge beyond the small world of your high school years. As mankind expands its comprehension of a greater universe, so must you extend your personal spheres of learning endlessly, so that your fellow men—aware that no known resource surpasses that of a working mind—will keep such a valuable commodity constantly busy and you will never need to search for employment. It will find you.

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 1964:

I feel a father's pride and elation concerning the fact you are nearing that milestone in the journey of all American youth to maturity—graduation day. Perhaps I have a more intensive feeling about this than any other member of the professional staff because I have worked with your education program at all levels of development. As your principal and friend, and as the coordinator of the secondary educational program, I hope that I have fulfilled my obligations to you in all phases of your development. I sincerely wish for each of you my very best wishes for your future plans.

The Senior Class officers and their sponsor, Mr. Louis Speziale, have guided our Senior Class in a very rewarding final year at C.H.S. By sponsoring the successful magazine campaign, our seniors were able to earn $1600 to use for publication of our colorful Voyager. Before the class had caught their breath, another campaign was launched—graduation namecards and invitations. Is it that time already? Soon, "after-prom" ideas were being suggested, while all the seniors were excitedly, and perhaps a bit nostalgically, planning their final whirl at C.H.S. Finally, before any senior realized, our class was passing for the last time through the halls of our Alma Mater. Graduation had arrived, and our three years of learning and laughing became pleasant memories. Let's never forget C.H.S., Seniors,—for it gave us three years of wonderful memories.

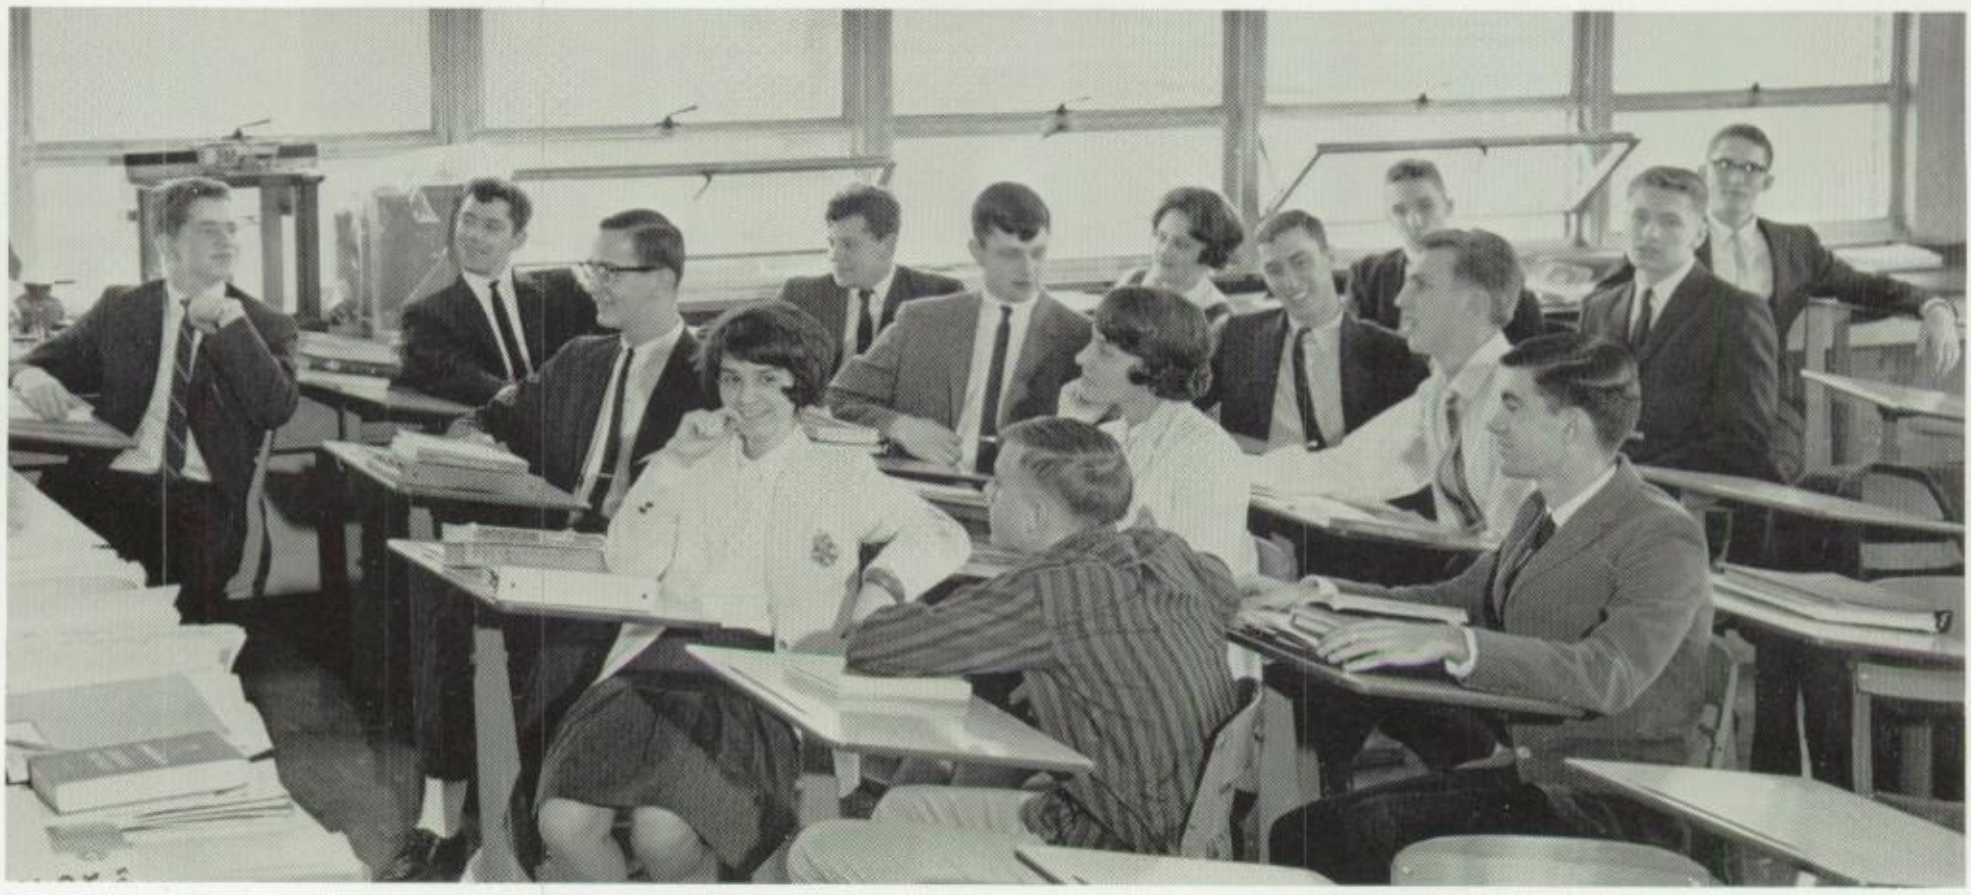
ADVANCED CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS



The final course of the advanced science program in CHS was instituted this year in an advanced Chemistry and Physics program. Directed by Mr. Melvin Burkett, the 15 members of this class are exposed to work beyond that of the normal high school level in these two sciences and also complete a certain amount of independent research in the field of their choice. This work will help to lessen the gap between high school and college sciences and definitely will be of great benefit to the students. Much credit is due to Mr. Burkett, who unselfishly gave up his free Saturdays to attend classes at Carnegie Tech so that he might present the most useful material to the class. Hats off to Mr. Burkett and these future scientists!

The members of the class include: A. Barthen, B. Cantwell, T. Cunningham, P. Gamrod, T. Holmes, B. Keil, M. Leschak, R. Loertscher, D. Moss, R. Mykita, D. Payne, A. Pysh, H. Sherman, P. Spivak, J. Weiss.

ADVANCED PLACEMENT ENGLISH

The Advanced Placement English class, under the supervision of Miss Lois Mason, is limited to the top 20 students of the senior class who have demonstrated a desire to learn and mature ability to handle large assignments, for the course includes 20 text books and 120 outside reading books. With a concentration on literature and composition, individual conferences are held to help each student develop his specific weaknesses. Students are expected to work at the freshman college level in their discussions and compositions. Then in May, they participate in the National Advanced Placement Examination which, if they receive the required grade, may permit them to skip their freshman course in college.

The members of the class include: A. Barthen, A. Brisse, B. Cantwell, P. Gamrod, J. Garrett, J. Gordon, J. Gulick, R. A. Hof, T. Holmes, M. Hoysan, B. Keil, P. Matwiczyk, L. McLaughlin, D. Moss, D. Payne, A. Pysh, S. Rowlands, S. Scott, J. Stevenson, C. Zawilla.

US WITH WISDOM,

READY FOR LIFE

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The Class of 1965 chose Russell Bunio, Peter Dignan, Penny Perlman, and Stephanie Popivchak as its officers.

President Russ Bunio is well recognized for his outstanding leadership qualities. Serving as a member of Student Council, Russ also takes an active interest in the affairs of the entire school. Not to be forgotten, though, are his athletic talents, which he displays capably on the basketball floor. Having earned a letter in his sophomore year, Russ is already a recognized member of the Varsity "C."

Pete Dignan, the class' choice for vice-president, possesses a cheerful sense of humor, which has made him a favorite among his classmates. Like Russ, Pete also has earned membership in the Varsity "C" because of his basketball talents.

Penny Perlman, secretary, is admired for her neatness and easy smile. One of her distinguishing characteristics is her desire to combine work with fun whenever possible. As a member of Student Council, Penny actively participates in all school activities. Her eagerness to do a good job has contributed to her success as class secretary.

A vivacious CHS cheerleader fills the spot of Junior Class Treasurer. She is Stephanie Popivchak, better known as Patsy. Well known to all for her friendliness, Patsy is an honor student and also serves on Student Council. Patsy's willingness to assume responsibility and to help others has made her a natural for the important position of treasurer.

STANDING: R. Bunio, President; P. Dignan, Vice-President.

JUNIORS

"Pop's" Junior Homeroom B-12 is a very active one at CHS. Let's now look at some of the qualities and capabilities of the room. Athletic? An abundance, proven by Chuck Lee, Rick Seder, and Harry Howrylchak on the football field; John Zaracki, and Bob Stewart on the wrestling mats; and Rick Seder on the basketball team. Pep??? Plenty, with Janet Dolfi, Danielle Fithen, and Ellen Coliguire as three of our fine CHS majorettes. Leadership??? Loads, in the likes of Joanne Klim and Bob Stewart who are Student Council members. How many more fine qualities can one homeroom contain???

HOMEROOM 103

Mrs. Mattson, C.H.S. Junior English teacher and sponsor of the National Honor Society, supervises this Junior homeroom. Well represented by active Junior girls, this room includes: Nancy Cooke, A.F.S. candidate; Cathy McGinnis, Girls' Ensemble; and Patsy Popivchak, Junior Class Treasurer and Student Council member. Not to be forgotten, however, are the outstanding male population of the room: Bill Steinhart and Harry McKelvey, who ably display their talents on the basketball floor; the indispensable football manager, Jack Moskovitz, and team member, John Mitchell; and Bob Podolak, Alan Koleski, and Ronald Spriggs who add to the ranks of our C.H.S. Kiltie Band. Fine homeroom, wouldn't you say?

It is in this Junior Homeroom that Mrs. Mikus, Sophomore English teacher, calls together her classes three times daily. This room can't lose with such brawn as Chuck Gerlowski, Dan Spinda, "Stush" Korzinsky, Jim Stewart, Jim Ragland, Lee Williamson, Greg Sembrat, and Foster Doak who all take part actively in sports. Katie Garvin and Judy Krovchyshyn are two of the C.H.S. high-stepping majorettes and Mary Lee Gartz is an I.F.S. candidate who will visit South America this summer. With all these components this homeroom has to be good!

Junior Homeroom 204 is very active in CHS. Its supervisor is Miss Thomas, a new teacher in the school. Vocal talents excel in this room with Kathy Duda, Andrea Brisse, and Marilyn Madva in the Girls' Ensemble, while in the Mixed Ensemble are Sharon Cleis and Jan Bayer. The students "bounce" along with fine basketball players in the likes of Pete Dignan, Ron Dalby, and Dave "Animal" Armani. Joe Muraco represents the wrestlers and Eileen Kasper and Kathy Duda are lively majorettes. Arleen Cook, Kathy Duda, and Marilyn Madva are busy VOYAGER staff members. Marilyn Madva and Ron Dalby are on the Student Council helping to solve the problems of Carnegie High School. These are only a few of the students in 204. All agreed on the capabilities of this room?

FIRST ROW, left to right: Miss Thomas, K. Duda, E. Kasper, D. Swish, M. Piper, L. Hardy, L. Persiani, A. Brisse, R. Molinaro, C. Crivaro. SECOND ROW: S. Cleis, K. Torcasio, M. Madva, J. Muraco, R. Mussill.

HOMEROOM 206

Meet some of the lucky students of Homeroom 206. They get to sit at tables instead of regular seats. That way, two or more people can copy from the same homework paper during 20 minute period. But, since Miss Boyle supervises 206, nothing like that ever happens, does it?

This room is dominated by boys. A.F.S. candidate Dan Jaracz, along with Russ Bunio, represents the basketball squad. These same boys and Gerry Speca are Student Council Representatives while Ken Grove, Dan Jaracz, Tom Long, and Harry Zemon are on the tennis team. Now we can't forget the girls who are fighting for their rights, can we? Nancy Yadlosky is on Student Council and Fay Wodzinski is a high-stepping majorette.

Oh, on the way out of the room, please watch the swinging door. It packs quite a wallop sometime!

Since both the sophomores of Homeroom 209 and their supervisor, Mr. Ted Bouyoucas, are newcomers to Carnegie High School, it is very appropriate that they be placed together. And it has not taken them long to "get into the swing of things" at CHS. Mr. Bouyoucas, commonly known as "Terrible Ted," found his place among the coaches of the CHS football squad. Leadership qualities prevail in Student Council members Bill Cathcart, Steve Madva, and Varsity cheerleader Carol Ostaffy. Leon Haracy capably displays his talents on the tennis court while Casper Cardamone does the same on the football field. These newcomers have made a fine name for themselves, haven't they???

Homeroom 203 is not only the reporting room for many sophomores, but also the stomping grounds for our Voyager Staff. Because its supervisor, Mrs. Green, is also a senior English teacher and sponsors the colorful CHS yearbook, the room is always packed with excitement. Its homeroom occupants also help to keep it lively. Wes Young, Mike Kozy, Russ Wright, and Ricky Mendola all lend their talents to the football squad, while Randy McDaniel serves as manager of the varsity wrestling team and Cathy Haluschak marches in the CHS Kiltie Band. Never a dull moment in Homeroom 203!

Kennedy, R. Leoderstein, T. Rush.

HOMEROOM 212

A new face among the faculty members this year is Miss Rainaldi, supervisor of Sophomore Homeroom 212, otherwise known as the biology lab. Among the microscopes and aquariums can be found several active and hard working CHS sophomores. Seen marching at football games, parades, and pep rallies is majorette Joan Crivaro, while Joe Zawilla and Fred Bigham lend their energy to the football spirit. Representing the sophomore girls on the Tri-Hi-Y Executive Committee is Ann Roach and popular Sharon Fife holds attendant positions in both the Homecoming and United Fund Courts. Fine homeroom, isn't it???

Mrs. Sally Pavlov, well-liked CHS art teacher, controls this sophomore homeroom. Excelling in sports activities are Gene Frazier, football; and George Barwell, Dave Skirpan, and Dom Politi, wrestling. Seen cheering for these boys at any varsity game is Martha Cathcart, an energetic CHS cheerleader.

The Art Room also has a special activity—each morning the students begin to talk with the objective of seeing who can talk the longest. Wonder if they've picked a winner yet???

HOMEROOM B10

Room B10, formerly a part of the Rifle Room, is now the homeroom of Mr. Buggan, a CHS math teacher. The members of B10 are very active, athletic-wise, that is. "Butchie" Danks and Joe Popivchak wrestle on the varsity team while Pete Matwiczyk is a junior varsity wrestler. "Sonny" Wash, the lone basketball player of Homeroom B10, leads the attack of the junior varsity team. However, the boys do not entirely dominate this Homeroom, for Joanne Rupinsky is a majorette.

HOMEROOM B11

Sophomore Homeroom B-11, meeting place of speech students, play committees, and Thespians, is supervised by Mr. Kostley. B-11 is capably represented in Student Council by Jodi Whaley, while Valerie Metz is a peppy member of the C.H.S. cheering squad. Members of the Little Tartans football team are Rich Pryke and Stan Carson, who are also on the wrestling squad. Tuesday and Friday nights find Harry Moehring, Ron Sgro, and John Beerman on the gym floor in basketball competition against one of Carnegie's rival teams. Carnegie High's athletic program would be lost without this great homeroom!

The Seniors, under the chairmanship of Mary Ann Hoysan and Dave Nixon, launched the 1963 magazine campaign on September 29. During the following three weeks, doorbells in and around the vicinity of Carnegie rang as high school students tirelessly sold various magazines to their neighbors, friends and relations. All the hard work was gloriously rewarded, though, for on October 15 the money was counted and the final total read $4,000 with a $1,600 profit. This money was used exclusively for publication of the Voyager. Leading the salesmen with $260 worth of sales was Dave Spinda with Kirk Fox, Jim Gulick, Pat Matwiczyk, and Donna Danks following close behind. After those last few order blanks were gathered up, an ice cream party was held to celebrate a successful sale.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY . . .

"TURN BACK THE CLOCK"

As the result of hard work, along with some fun, the Senior Class of CHS presented "Turn Back The Clock" on the nights of November 29 and 30, 1963. The play was postponed from the previous week due to the death of President John F. Kennedy.

The play was a comedy centered about the idea that all generations are more or less alike after all. It is a glimpse into those days in which parents and children behave in almost the same way that they behave today.

The cast and backstage committees deserve much praise for their weeks of hard work. However, none of it could have been possible without the patience and efforts of the director, Mr. Lawrence Kostley.

CHOIR

The Carnegie High School Choir, under the direction of Mr. John Bandyk, is composed of 119 junior and senior boys and girls. Practicing in small groups twice a week, the choir rehearses all the musical selections they present at their two choral programs, one of which is given at Christmas, the other in the spring. "This year's chorus," says Mr. Bandyk, "has achieved excellent quality and blend and is one of the finest groups I have ever had."

"CHARGE ON"

Written by Mr. Aldo DiIanni,
CHS Band Director

The trumpets blow, the Tartans call,
The drums boom, boom, boom the cadence on,
The cheers of CHS beckon all to rally
Tartans, charge, charge on;
The team's in shape, the band's in tune,
The gala parade starts soon,
Join the throng, for stakes are large,
Victory's ours, Tartans charge, Tartans charge.

RUDY LOERTSCHER—Carnegie High School's Foreign Exchange Student from Switzerland.

"It's terrible how fast the time flies by. It seems to me that I just arrived and already I'll soon have to say goodby to you. There is so much I'd like to say, for everybody has been so wonderful and helpful to me, but all I can say now is thanks a lot and I'll never forget you. I'll always remember my year here in CHS as the very best of my life—fighting for a seat in the cafeteria, sitting on the bench at basketball games, turning pages at the Christmas assembly, being the first Santa Claus at CHS who had a German accent, well, too many things to mention.

But as well, my stay here has given me a better understanding of the American way of life, a second home and a second country. If you ever come to Switzerland, ask for me between Bern and Zurich and I'll be glad to help you as well as you always helped me. Once more, thanks alot to everybody and goodby."

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

AUDREY PYSH—Carnegie High School's Foreign Exchange Student to Germany.

"It is hard to express the sentiment of an unforgettable summer into a few short sentences, for being an exchange student of the American Field Service program was an experience I know I shall never forget. I made my home in Hanover, Germany, with the Hesse family, which included "Pappy," who was a Lutheran minister, "Mutti," a wonderful housewife and cook, and two great sisters, Renate, 21, and Christiane, 15, We travelled throughout much of the country and I was even fortunate enough to visit the divided city of Berlin for four days, spending one of them in the Communist eastern zone. From this I learned much about the world situation and the positions of various countries in world affairs. But the most important part of my summer was spent learning about my second country and its people and coming to love them as my own. My summer certainly taught me the real value of the meaning behind these words, the AFS motto: "Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the earth. Then, and only then, shall ye have peace."

INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

Chela Murgueytio

An important part of the International Fellowship is the exchange which brings South American students to our school and community. This year, CHS received three students who spent from two to three months with American families: Chela Murgueytio, who lived with the Miller family; Leonides Herran (Kiko) Lopez, who stayed with the Jaracz's; and Dolly Palaez, who became the fourth member of the Hoysan family. Most CHS students will not soon forget their South American friends and hope that Chela, Kiko, and Dolly will also remember them.

MARY ANN HOYSAN

"Last summer, it was my good fortune to be chosen as a representative of my school and International Fellowship in Cali, Colombia. While there, I lived with the Maya family, and for 2½ months, I led the life of a Colombian teenager from learning the language and customs down to eating rice twice every day. I feel that I gained knowledge that could not be surpassed by reading any book or watching any movie. Moreover, the acquaintances that I made, will occupy a special place in my heart for the rest of my life."

DONNA DANKS

"I was very fortunate to be chosen as a foreign exchange student to Chile. After the usual amount of strangeness of going into a new country, I was soon able to establish myself as a Chilean. I was thrilled at the thought of becoming a member of a Chilean family. My 'mama' and 'papa,' Senor and Senora Rafael Fuster Lopez, and my brother and sisters, Pacho, Mirentchou, Rosita, Monica, and Mary, treated me as though I were one of the family. I learned many of the customs and ways of life of the Chileans, both domestic and political. The thing that impressed me most about Chile was the warm-heartedness and kindness of the Chileans themselves. I will always be grateful to those who made my wonderful trip possible."

DAVID NIXON

"I was very fortunate to be selected as a foreign exchange student to Buenos Aires, Argentina, this past summer. During my stay in Buenos Aires, my foster family was Senor y Senora de la Riva and their two sons. The experience was rewarding in every aspect. As a member of the family I shared their full social life and soon realized that teenagers are pretty much the same wherever you are. Politically speaking, I was fortunate to be in Argentina during one of their few presidential elections. It was quite interesting as well as frightening at times. Educationally speaking, I found the school system to be quite different. I consider my experience to be of great value and am grateful to those who made it possible."

PAUL SPIVAK

"I represented Carnegie High School as a "good will" ambassador to Ecuador under the I.F.S. Program. I made my home with the Vozquez family in the small town of Cuenca. Through my family and many friends, I acquired a true understanding of our South American neighbors. From my experiences, I learned that our southern neighbors judge us by our personality traits and our consistent desire to become better friends."

STUDENTS INTERNATIONAL

Students International, an organization sponsored by Mr. Joseph Buggan, is a very new club in CHS. Membership is limited to foreign students who are attending Carnegie High, all returnees, or American students who spent the past summer in a foreign country, and candidates for either the American Field Service or International Fellowship Exchange Programs. One of the club's biggest annual affairs is a money-making project to raise funds for bringing exchange students to CHS. In addition the club sponsors field trips to points of interest around Pittsburgh and tries to organize activities which will acquaint the foreign students with the American way of life. Certainly this is one of the most worthwhile organizations in CHS.

In the fall of their junior year, several students were chosen as candidates for the American Field Service and International Fellowship Exchange Programs. This year, Dan Jaracz, Nancy Cooke, and Mary Lee Gartz were selected to send applications to New York and Buffalo and, before the end of the junior year, each one knew where he or she would be spending the summer as an exchange student. It is quite an honor to be selected as a candidate, and to participate in either of the programs is an unforgettable experience.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of Carnegie High School is composed of representatives from each class and meets weekly. During its meetings the council discusses and settles many of the problems for the betterment of the school.

The school council also provides many activities for the school. Among these are: regular canteens, a successful United Fund Campaign and an annual Appreciation Day, the faculty's way of appreciating the students for their good behavior during the year. The Student Council also does its best to promote better school spirit and raise money for the foreign exchange program. Each year the men faculty get the opportunity to play basketball against the K.Q.V. High-Hoopers or a professional team. The Student Council is by far the most active organization in C.H.S.

TOWN MEETING CLUB

The Town Meeting Club is actually not what the name implies at all. No town does any meeting. But—there are a lot of sharp CHS students who do meet, and for a very good purpose. This club is organized to prepare its members for the Student United Nations of Western Pennsylvania which is held annually in Pittsburgh. All club members hold various positions in this Student U.N., some representing delegates and ambassadors of foreign lands in the General Assembly, others acting as judges of the World Court, and still some serving in various organ committees. The club members meet regularly to learn their duties for their various positions and also to discuss foreign affairs and current U.N. actions. This year the Town Meeting Club also handled the difficult job of Program Committee for the entire Student United Nations. We can certainly be proud of this industrious CHS Club!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Junior or senior students maintaining a "B" average may be elected into the National Honor Society. The functions of the NHS are to provide substitutes in the absence of a teacher and to sponsor the Honors Assembly. This year, the Honor Society sold candy after school to raise money for pins, flowers, and a banquet. No wonder many parents queried, "Why can't you finish your supper?"

NATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Thespian Society is to promote interest in stage production and drama. Each year the Carnegie High School chapter, Troupe 367, helps in producing the Junior and Senior Class Plays, in addition to participating in various school assemblies. Persons involved in these activities, both cast members and backstage crew, acquire points which lead to eventual membership in the society. All members agree that the Thespian Society is one of the most rewarding, yet "fun" clubs in the whole school.

VOYAGER

Carol Zawilla
Editor

The VOYAGER Staff is comprised of typists, copy staff, editor, and assistant editors. The VOYAGER campaign began in October with final payment of $2.00 payable in January or the complete cost of $4.50 at the start of the campaign. One of the book's biggest financial helps is the Magazine Campaign. Through the sale of a large selection of famous magazines, the VOYAGER begins its growth. A successful magazine campaign will determine the size and quality of the VOYAGER. This year, $1600.00 was received from the campaign.

The VOYAGER Staff assembles and gathers all types of pictures and school data and binds the lasting memoirs into our yearbook—THE VOYAGER.

The See, the student voice of CHS now in its thirtieth year, keeps both students and faculty informed about school activities. Student printed on the school's new multilith machine under the guidance of Miss Patricia Thomas, the bi-weekly newspaper is financed by Student Council and distributed free to all high school students. Fourteen junior and senior able writers gather each morning in Room 205 from 8:15 to 8:50 for Journalism class and prepare the news for publication under the guidance of editor Al Barthen and sponsor Miss Lois Mason.

A member of the International Quill and Scroll and Pennsylvania Scholastic Press Association, the paper annually wins awards in various competitions.

Sponsored by Mr. Matovich, the Library Club is made up of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who have been recommended for membership by their English teachers. These girls give up one free period every week to work in the library for "Mattey." Their duties include processing and checking out books, designing the library's bulletin board and showcase, and, of course, getting the best of Mr. Matovich. During the past year, the Library Club toured the Pittsburgh Press plant and also gave a book to the winner of a contest held during National Library Week.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Sophomore, Junior and Senior girls interested in athletics are eligible for membership in the Girls' Athletic Association. Like the Varsity "C," it is a very active club at CHS. In addition to encouraging good sportsmanship among the students, the G.A.A. gives the girls a chance to display their athletic talents by sponsoring an intramural sports program after school. All members are asked to obtain at least 50 points a semester by participating in these sports. Each year at the annual mother and daughter banquet the girls who have accumulated at least 300 points over a 3-year period receive a letter (the boys aren't the only ones who can do it!). G.A.A. also works in conjunction with the Varsity "C" in such matters as volleyball games and sponsoring the annual King and Queen of Sports Dance. What about that annual joint picnic???

VARSITY "C"

All boys who have earned a Varsity letter have the opportunity to become a member of the Varsity "C"—if they survive the informal initiations. As one of the most active clubs in Carnegie High School, the Varsity "C" provides concession stands at basketball games and wrestling matches and sponsors many dances after varsity games. It also helps the Boosters' Club and earns money for varsity letter jackets. Something missing????? Oh yes! The Varsity "C" also supplies the G.A.A. with boys for the annual joint picnic in May.

Initiations. Ugh! What a mess!

The Future Engineers of America supplement their knowledge by joining this club. Mr. Burkett and the members discuss new theories, accomplishments, and discoveries in the scientific areas and go on field trips. Perhaps one or more of these boys will be able to help send the first man to the moon. Let's hope our luck holds out and they don't blow the school up instead!

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The fifty members of the F.B.L.A. are in one of the most active clubs in Carnegie High School. Their sponsor, Miss Jane Boyle, tries to prepare the girls for their roles in the business world. Due to the absence of Miss Boyle in the first part of this year, Miss Lois Mason kindly consented to supervise the girls and, when Miss Boyle returned, Miss Mason remained as assistant sponsor. This year the girls had a rewarding experience by visiting St. Paul's Orphanage and planning a Christmas party for the children there. The F.B.L.A. also took several field trips and sponsored fund-raising projects.

The Future Teachers of America, or commonly known as the F.T.A., was organized to interest and encourage students in the rewarding profession of teaching. Their sponsor, Mrs. Pavlov, devotes much of her time to the activities of the club. This year the girls received a big thrill, because a number of boys were brave enough to join! Members participate in the yearly Student Teacher's Day, and return to Carnegie High School after a tiresome, but memorable, day in the teaching profession.

"Como esta?" and "Comment allez vous?" are familiar greetings heard from members of the French-Spanish Club. The club membership consists of both students studying French or Spanish and the visiting foreign exchange students. With Mr. Palonis at the stern, the club's main project is earning money to help finance the trips of Carnegie's A.F.S. and I.F.S. students. In addition, the treasury buys French and Spanish magazines for the library and the members purchase pins. All in all, students in this club enjoy their membership and are happy to be included in its activities, n'est-ce pas?

"Did you forget to put this tray of chemicals away?" is a common question asked by Mr. Burkett, sponsor of the CHS Camera Club. All of its members learn new techniques for taking pictures and have access to the dark room where they learn the fundamentals of developing their pictures. Often the boys take and develop pictures which are used in the "See" and VOYAGER. CHS is proud of this industrious club. But who forgot to put the chemicals away, anyhow?

The biology club, under the sponsorship of Miss Rainaldi, was organized to interest and encourage students in the science of biology. As a requirement for membership, each student must make a suitable project for the school science fair, the winners of which will be sent for additional judging at the Buhl Planetarium. Each spring, the club participates in a field trip to supply the biology room with specimens. Within the past year, this club has grown in size and in active participation.

The Hi-Y, a Christian organization open to sophomore, junior, and senior boys, is affiliated with the Downtown Y in Pittsburgh and shares with the Tri-Hi-Y its purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character." As one of the most active CHS clubs, the Hi-Y, sponsored by Mr. Andresky, organized many fund-raising projects and activities of interest to its members. Often the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y planned joint activities—to foster better relationships, of course! The Hi-Y is certainly one of the best CHS clubs.

This past fall several CHS students, along with approximately 250 other students from various area schools, participated in the annual Allegheny County Chorus. The group rehearsed many long hours, practising three times a week for four weeks at Frick Elementary School in Oakland. Finally, the chorus was prepared and presented its program of musical selections from Broadway shows, sacred songs, and Negro spirituals to the annual assembly for Teachers' Institute. Being a member of this choir was a great honor for all students who participated.

DISTRICT CHORUS

From the participants of several County Choruses, a group of students was selected to make up the annual District Chorus, which was held at Bethel Area High School. For four days, from January 17 to 20, the singers lived in area homes and spent many hours rehearsing, as well as enjoying social events. Concerts were performed Friday and Saturday evenings, the 18th and 19th, and on Sunday all students returned home. Everyone who participated agreed that it was a wonderful and rewarding experience.

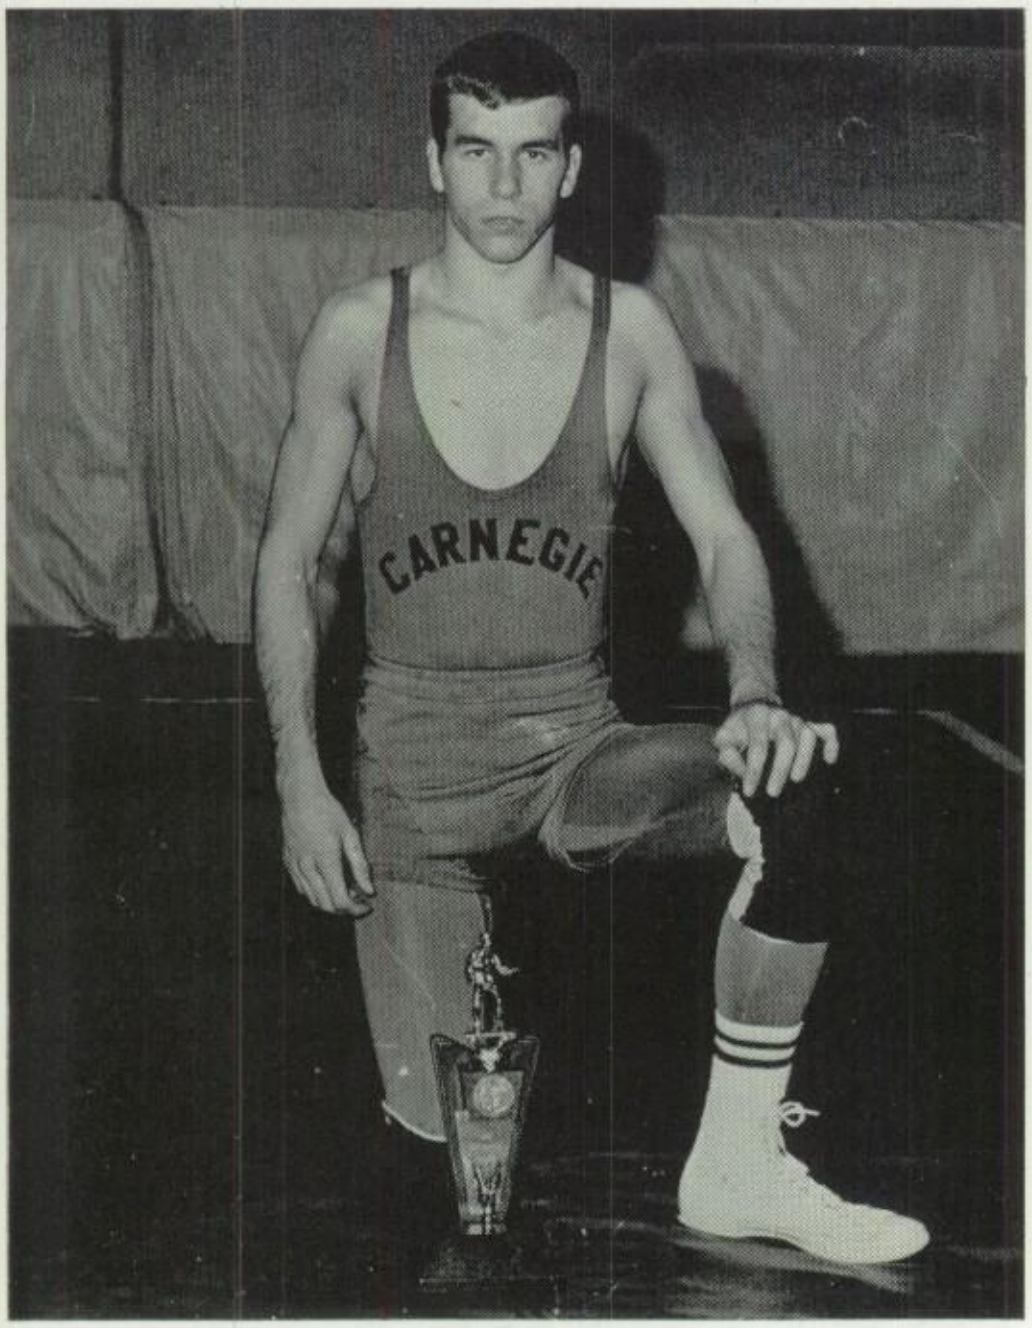
STATE CHAMPION



David Apinda

On March 14, 1964, Dave Spinda captured the PIAA State Wrestling Championship at Pennsylvania State University. He is only the second to achieve this great feat in the history of CHS.

Dave was on his way to the State Crown when he became the WPIAL Section 1 Champion in the 138 pound class on February 29. He had to compete in four matches to gain this title.

Mike Zuk, 103, and John Zaracki, 154, were able to wage their ways to the Section finals, but both were defeated.

Dave's victory took him to the WPIAL Regional Tournament the following week at the Pitt Field House where he defeated two more opponents.

Finally, Dave gained his last two victories at Penn State where boys from all four corners of Pennsylvania competed. After defeating his last opponent, he remained undefeated with a record of 22 wins and no losses, and was crowned Pennsylvania's 138 pound champion.

Congratulations to Susan Boor, Finalist; Patty Matwiczyk, Linda McLaughlin, and Dan Moss, Letter of Commendation winners.

THANK YOU, ROCKY, VIC, AND DAVE

Roy Raco (Rocky), Vic Polk, and Dave Van Deveer, Mr. Polk's assistant, in addition to Rich Westermann, VOYAGER Staff photographer, are the "fellas" who did most of the photography for our yearbook, the VOYAGER. Their work was greatly appreciated by every member of the VOYAGER Staff and I'm sure by everyone else who looks at the sharp pictures in this yearbook. Thank you again, Rocky, Vic, and Dave.

Dave Van Deveer and Vic Polk.

The Late President of the U. S.
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

IN MEMORIAM

November 22, 1963, marked another day that will long live in the minds and hearts of Carnegie High School students as well as people everywhere over the surface of the earth. At 2:45 p.m. that afternoon, the words rang loud and clear over the Public Address system, "President John F. Kennedy, wounded earlier in the afternoon by a sniper's bullet, is dead." A hushed silence fell upon all the classrooms as some wept, others stared numbly into space, and still others unbelievingly exclaimed, "But it just can't be true." But soon the hearts of one and all were heavy with sorrow and the realization that the life of this personality, this diplomat, this man, had been tragically snuffed out by the hand of an assassin. The 3:10 dismissal bell rang and the usually happy, talkative boys and girls solemnly made their way to their lockers for books and coats then quietly left the building. The Senior Class Play, which had been scheduled for that Friday and Saturday evenings, was postponed, as students, with deep respect, spent the long weekend in their homes with their own families. Yes, he's gone and we'll nevermore see his friendly, reassuring smile or hear his kind words of wisdom, but the memory will live on, the memory of a president, of a husband, of a father, our beloved J.F.K.

SEPTEMBER

1—New School year begins. (You're in the Army now!) A welcome went out to Rudy Loertscher, Mr. Bouyoucas, Mrs. Pruner, Miss Rainaldi, Miss Thomas, Mrs. Vorko, and a welcome back to Mr. Marcenelle.

7—"Yea, Carnegie! Beat Chartiers-Houston!" And we did—19-7. After a victory dance, a swingin' group went to the airport to greet the returning IFS'ers. It sure looked as if they liked South American food!

13—Yea again, team—we're really proud of you. Carnegie 13, West Allegheny 7.

20—Joan Stevenson is crowned Homecoming Queen. Donna Danks, Penny Perlman, and Nancy Yadlosky make up her court.

29—Dave Nixon and Mary Ann Hoysan put the magazine campaign into full swing. All seniors try their ability as salesmen.

OCTOBER

4—Teachers' Institute Day—Wow! A day off.

10—VOYAGER campaign is launched. No bankruptcy this year; it's only $4.50. (Inside tip—We hear the price will rise with incoming seniors.)

14—Juniors make a trying decision choosing class rings. Are you sure you got the one "she" wanted?

22—G.A.A. holds its annual Halloween Initiation Party. How does it feel to be a mess?! (Ohhh, that apple cider!)

25—Orange and Black Day. Everyone gets tired feet on the snake dance up Washington Avenue before the Dormont game. We won, of course.

NOVEMBER

1—Busy day. An ice cream party was held for the top forty salesmen of the campaign. The prizes were given out and whoever had earned a sleepy dog fought over what color they wanted. This was followed by a pep rally for the game against New Brighton. What spirit. Don't forget the bus ride to and from the game. What a blast! (Who has my shoe?)

13—Open House. Any parents lost in the rushing crowds?

15—Report cards given out today! Be sure to take a few tranquilizers home.

22—Carnegie High was in a state of shock to hear of President Kennedy's death.

26—Seniors were measured for caps and gowns—but graduation is still a long way off. We're thankful for—Thanksgiving. (A few days of vacation.)

29-30—The Senior Class presents "Turn Back the Clock." (Charlie, do you have props you need?)

Everyone was wishing the best of luck to Sharyn Rowlands who went to Reading to compete for Pennsylvania's "Junior Miss" title.

DECEMBER

6—Basketball season begins. The same faithful fans are rootin' this year.

9-11—The Choir presents its Christmas Program. (Do you hear what I hear?)

20—Wrestlers defeat mighty Mt. Lebanon. What a thriller! 22-21.

21—Snow Ball sponsored by Student Council and Students International. Everyone looked nice.

LOG

DECEMBER

23—Teachers gave up trying to teach today. Everyone was eagerly awaiting the 2:30 dismissal. Have a cool Yule!

27-28—Christmas Wrestling Tournament at Chartiers-Houston. Congratulations, Dave, for winning the honors.

JANUARY

1—12:00 Midnight. Have a frantic First. (Don't come in too late!)

2—School is back in session. Nobody's quite recovered from the Holidays.

3—First league game. We down old enemies at Bethel.

11—The Tri-Hi-Y sponsored a swim and dance night at the YMCA. Were you playing in the pool—or playing pool?

12-14—MIRACLE! C.H.S. gets two days off because of snow! What happened in the front office??? It's beyond belief!!

17—Carnegie stampedes Jack Douglass, one of Brentwood's Cagers. (You know we were only teasin', boys!)

23-24—UGH! Mid-terms.

27—A day to rest between semesters. Also, Library Club Inductions "Work Hard, girls!"

FEBRUARY

2—Ground Hog Day. We know some students who would like to crawl in a hole after seeing their report cards on Friday.

12—National Honor Society inducts new members and gives recognition to those on the Honor Roll.

14—Valentine's Day. "Aw, teachers, have a heart!"

18—Final Voyager deadline. Thank you, Voyager Staff, for cooperation and hard work.

29—We just remembered—it's Leap Year. Go get 'em, girls!

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE

In the life of every teacher there comes a day when he suddenly finds himself in the position of the pupil and realizes to his amazement that his pupil has become his teacher.

Take the case of an average junior high student. His contact with accelerated courses and all the modern technology that science has to offer, has enhanced his education ten fold over previous generations.

For this reason, many teachers find it imperative to continue their education at some local college or university in order to stay abreast of their students.

As many teachers have discovered, education is a two way street. The students receive enrichment, teachers receive enlightenment.
